United States Court of Appeals
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA CIRCUIT

No. 08-3037*September Term, 2012

In light of the protracted schedule entered by the court, the parties are discouraged from seeking extensions of time to file their briefs. Any such request will be approved only for “extraordinarily compelling reasons.” See D.C. Cir. Rule 28(e)(1). The parties will be notified by separate order of the oral argument date and composition of the merits panel.

Parties are strongly encouraged to hand deliver the paper copies of their briefs to the Clerk's office on the date due. Filing by mail may delay the processing of the brief. Additionally, counsel are reminded that if filing by mail, they must use a class of mail that is at least as expeditious as first-class mail. See Fed. R. App. P. 25(a). All briefs and appendices must contain the date that the case is scheduled for oral argument at the top of the cover. See D.C. Cir. Rule 28(a)(8).
